QM Systems additional contract win with Mann and Hummel (UK) Ltd

QM Systems, a wholly-owned subsidiary of PipeHawk, is pleased to announce that following the successful completion of its first large scale project with Mann and Hummel (UK) Ltd (“Mann and Hummel”), it has been awarded further business totalling over £400,000, to be delivered over the next five months. Mann and Hummel is a world class provider of Air, Fuel, Oil and Water Filtration Systems across a wide range of industries. QM Systems is pleased to announce the establishment of a partnership with Mann and Hummel, to provide production and test equipment for the foreseeable future. Mann and Hummel recognise the value in forming a strong partnership with its key suppliers and QM is proud that Mann and Hummel have chosen QM as its partner of choice in providing industry leading, ‘state of the art’ assembly and test solutions to be utilised throughout its UK manufacturing capabilities.

Gordon Watt, Chairman of PipeHawk, the parent company of QM Systems commented “This is fantastic news in the continued development of QM Systems business model. We take nothing for granted and we are honoured to be chosen by Mann and Hummel as their partner of choice. We work tirelessly to provide our clients with the best possible service and experience, we are extremely confident that Mann and Hummel will continue to be fully satisfied with the service that QM Systems provides as this partnership develops”.
